About the investment advisor

Working out of a converted barn in West Oxfordshire, Evenlode is a fund management company that has always done things differently. The independent firm was founded in 2009 and is dedicated to a single style of investing that looks to identify exceptional companies with strong competitive advantages that will persist into the future. Evenlode has developed a unique information technology system to support investment decision-making and ensures that it isn't reliant on any one individual. Through discipline and consistency, the firm's goal is to ensure that its investors never get any surprises.

Investment philosophy

The Fund invests in companies with high levels of profitability and competitive advantages that are hard to replicate. This enables Evenlode to compound their returns over the long term. They see buying shares as taking a part ownership in the business, and so focuses on those companies that:

- Have low capital costs.
- Reinvest in their own growth.
- Emphasise sustainability.
- Are not overvalued by the market.
- Operate in growing sectors.
- Reduce risk for investors by emphasising stability and good governance.

Risk profile

Investor profile

The Fund is ideally suited to investors with an investment horizon of 7 years or longer.
